

75 Acres Donated for Development

Local Government Gives Land. Pledges Paved Road and Electricity.

Using a Lap-Top computer and digital camera given to James Kariuki by KBI General Contractors, Tustin, CA, the World Christian Outreach (WCO), Director in Africa was able to show pictures of the New Dawn Community building project to a Minister of Parliament and the Mayor-Counselor of the Rumuruti District in Northwest Kenya.

These government officials became so excited and interested in WCO's desire to help orphans and provide community development that they decided to give WCO 10 acres of land.

At James' invitation to view the project site in person, these African leaders were able to see first hand the deep water bore hole, the water storage tank and generator, and the progress on the five buildings. They were so impressed that they reevaluated their offer of 10 acres and asked James how many acres were needed to complete the project.

Why We Get Involved

If We Don't Help These Kids.....Who Will?

New Dawn Communities came into being for the express purpose of establishing a self-sufficient community that through its own resources will provide teaching and training for a group of AIDS orphans. These young children, the future of their community and country, will not only be taught about God and how to read and write, but will be given skills on how to become productive members of their society. This will be accomplished by job training, hands on work experience and mentoring programs. The outcome will be a community growing in understanding of not only the spiritual and intellectual things of God, but how to provide financially for their families and community.

However, during the first two to three years of establishing the programs and businesses that will eventually provide the self-sustaining resources to make this happen, we need your help. food, clothing, school books and supplies are needed right away

These "Street Boys" are on their own. Who is going to teach them about God, how to read and write, and how to make a living when they grow up? "New Dawn Communities", through your prayers and donations, CAN make a difference in these kids lives.

as the first group of 50 children will be arriving to start classes in September. Funds are also needed to finish the building of their beds, dining facilities and classroom furniture.

We need about $75,000 to purchase these items and operate the school and orphanage for the next year. Remember over 90% of all your donations go directly to this project. Please, as the Lord leads you, send what you can today.

We know that God will provide and show these young boys and girls that He loves them through your prayerful gifts and support.

In Good Hands

Future Generations
Need
Godly
Examples to Emulate.

God has given World Christian Outreach African Director James Kariuki an loving heart and open arms for the young children of his country. Seeing their needs first hand has driven him to commit the rest of his life to show them Gods love and care in real and tangible ways.

World Christian Outreach is committed to bringing the Love of God to the forgotten orphans in Africa. Giving the "least of these" the necessary support of not just shelter, food and clothing; but teaching them about God, His love for them, and how to serve Him through serving others. To do this we need to reach out to local pastors and Christian leaders who have the same vision.

"It is our goal to bring pastors from America and English speaking European countries into East Africa - to the rural churches, bringing solid biblical teaching and foundational truths about God as revealed in the Scriptures to as many African pastors and lay leaders as possible," James Kariuki, WCO African Director recently stated. "Helping to prepare them to teach the next generation of Africans on what it means to be a Christian and how to live victorious through the power of the Word of God and His Spirit. The next generation needs to have solid examples of Christians who live by the Word and are lead by the Spirit," he concluded.

These pastors who come to Africa to teach are also taught. They are able to see first hand the real African style of worship and praising of the Lord that takes place at these meetings. The African's unashamed, simple and truthful expression of worship breaks down many barriers. Pre-conceived ideas of what constitutes a "church service" is shattered by a whole different dimension of Christianity. When most Africans pray they truly believe that the Holy Spirit will "come down" upon them, and He does! Their simple, childlike faith is deeply rooted in their hearts and just about every African Christian is vocal about their love for Jesus Christ.

The pastors and lay leaders that we send to Africa go there to give of themselves and to be a blessing to their African counterparts, but they also get blessed as they meet Christians that are truly "more than conquerors!" In an oppressed, persecuted, poverty-ridden culture we rarely meet a discouraged Christian. What an incredible thing to encounter Christian people who give their whole testimony when they first meet you! What an encouragement it is to see belief and hope in the eyes of a person when you pray for them! What an astounding thing it is to be in a rural African church where no other white person has been.

At these meetings we find Africans are eager to learn and only approved the proposal, but also committed to provide electric power for the project and to the surrounding homeowners.

These additional 75 acres are about 25 minutes by dirt road from New Dawn. The Kenya Government has repeatedly stated that they plan to pave roads in the area in the near future, which will cut the driving time down to 10-15 minutes.

A letter of intention has been given to New Dawn by the Mayor (see picture page 1) and the next step is to survey the land portion to be given.

We are very grateful to the city of Rumuruti, Kenya and, hopefully, we can establish a Sister City relationship with a city here in the U.S.

American Pastors will come together July 18- 21, 2005 to celebrate this significant achievement. Our goals are to help homeless orphans, educate young people on the dangers of HIV/AIDS, bring different church denominations together in a spirit of oneness, and promulgate Biblical teachings based on fundamental Christian doctrine, the Christian family, prayer, and our great potential in Jesus Christ" he concluded.

absorb everything that we have to give. They love Americans and are always ready to receive our teaching and our prayers. There is an incredible cross fertilization of gifts directed by the Holy Spirit taking place...a mixing of cultures, economic systems, personal doctrinal beliefs; but always a coming together in love and appreciation for one another. The Africans are incisive in their thinking, absolutely serious about the Bible, and will hold a person to their word, whether in preaching or in normal conversation. They are refreshing in their sincerity and honesty.

These meetings are vital to all who participate, as student becomes teacher and teacher becomes student, that God may be glorified as He prepares the next generation for service. Pray for Stan and James as they coordinate these beneficial meetings.

Pastor Conferences, Community Outreach and Home Study Bible Classes are just some of the incredible things that we will be doing in our new facilities. Updates on these and other things that God is doing will be in our next issue.....Keep Praying !!
